 W elcome to the second edition Shiny Hippy People brochure. Our organic and fairtrade goodies can be purchased over the phone, by email or mail order. We will soon have our website finished and purchases can then be placed over the internet too.
 We have added many more products for 2007 including new paraben free skin care from Faith in Nature which includes organic Aloe Vera. Additionally from Faith in Nature we are now including their Clear Spring range of household cleaning products. The Faith in Nature range are able to offer good quality affordable natural products for everyday use.
 We are offering special prices on many items from Green Ridge Herbals to encourage people to try the products; 100% natural and organic skin care, hand made in small batches offering the highest quality and truly pampering experience. Try these now while on offer! (see pages 19 -21)
 You will also find a vastly increased range of fair trade ethnic crafts on offer. By purchasing these products you are directly contributing to the livelihood of many families in some of the poorest countries of the world. These people are artists and craftsmen who deal directly with the importer ensuring that a fair price is paid for the crafts. Great effort goes into ensuring that all painted products are painted in child safe, fade resistant acrylics and that all carvings are from wood sourced sustainably. Your purchases really do make a difference to the craftsmen and women who produce these fairtrade crafts.
 We mustn't forget to mention the delicious award winning organic Boja Boja chocolates, available in the full range of tempting flavours including their new flavour 'toffee apple crumble'. These are perfect as a gift but you might want to try them out for yourself too!
